

2015 Goulburn Plaza Show
March 21 & 22, 2015

Goulburn
Plaza

IT'S SHOWTIME

LADIES and gentlemen, boys and girls ... standby for a major announcement!

The Goulburn Plaza Show on Saturday and Sunday, March 21 and 22 will be the biggest and best show yet!

To be held at the Recreation Area grounds (off Braidwood Road) and incorporating the Veolia Area, this year's show will commemorate the 100th anniversary of the Anzac landings at Gallipoli, with special displays and pavilion exhibits.

The show will also be celebrating 135 years, with a bumper program of activities and entertainment for the whole family over the two days.

Importantly, entry prices remain cheap, with adult admission $15 ($5 for aged pensioners, veterans and disabilities), children 17 and under $5 and pre-school aged children free.

A family pass is $30 (2 adults and 2 children 17yrs and under).

Goulburn Agricultural, Pastoral and Horticultural president Jacki Waugh says a show ticket is the best value money can buy.

"We are promoting it as offering 'something for everyone' and when you look at the dozens and dozens of attractions on offer, all interests, all ages are catered for," Mrs Waugh said.

Returning to the show this year will be a Tug O War and Sheep Shearing competition.

"This year we are very excited to be using the Veolia Arena to display our Photography and Arts, we will be using the stage in the Arena for live Entertainment over the weekend and other displays," Mrs Waugh said.

"The official opening will be held at 11.30am on the Saturday by Assistant Commissioner Gary Worboys.

"Other competitions to watch out for is the Wine Show, Wood chop in front of the grand stand, Junior Showgirl & Showman Competition, come and meet our 2105 Showgirl Bonnie Skinner, view live demonstrations in the Produce Pavilion, and much, much more!

"Make sure you visit the many trade and industrial displays, musical entertainment, livestock and equestrian, unparalleled to anywhere in the region, as well as the ever present side shows."

Mrs Waugh praised the support of the event's supporters, including major sponsor Goulburn Plaza.

There will be free giveaways as well as fantastic specials available from Goulburn Plaza retailers like Lowes, Red Rooster, Mathers, Rockmans, Mister Minit and more.

Once you've seen the show don't forget to visit Goulburn Plaza at 217 Auburn Street for all your shopping needs.

The Workers Club, Goulburn Mulwaree Council, Divall's and Lynn's Floral Studio are also key sponsors.

For more details about the 2015 Goulburn Plaza phone 4821 6813, email info@goulburnshow.com.au or visit goulburnshow.com.au.

MEET AND GREET: Come along and meet 2015 Goulburn Showgirl Bonnie Skinner who will be presented at the show's opening at 11.30am on Saturday March 21 at the Veolia Arena stage. Photo: Bay Post/Moruya Examiner.

Message from the president

By JACKI WAUGH
Goulburn Agricultural, Pastoral and Horticultural president

I WOULD like to welcome everyone to the 2015 Goulburn Plaza Show.

The annual Goulburn Show, rebranded this year by our major sponsor as the Goulburn Plaza Show is one of the largest community events in the Goulburn Mulwaree area and will be held on the weekend of the 21st and 22nd of March 2015. It is billed as "Something for everyone" promoting a low cost family fun weekend.

Running since 1880, this year we will be celebrating our 135th Annual Goulburn Show. As 2015 is also the 100th anniversary of the formation of The Australian and New Zealand Army Corps we are proud to theme this year's Show as the "Centenary of ANZAC".

Back at the show after being absent for a few years will be a Tug O War and Sheep Shearing competition, so come along and have a look. This year we are very excited to be using the Veolia Arena to display our Photography and Arts, we will be using the stage in the Arena for live Entertainment over the weekend and other displays, the official opening will be held at 11.30am on the Saturday by Assistant Commissioner Gary Worboys.

Other competitions to watch out for is the Wine Show, Wood chop in front of the grand stand, Junior Showgirl and Showman Competition, come and meet our 2105 Showgirl Bonnie Skinner, view live demonstrations in the Produce Pavilion, and much, much more!

Make sure you visit the many trade and industrial displays, musical entertainment, livestock and equestrian, unparalleled to anywhere in the region, as well as the ever present side shows. Camel rides will be available all weekend.

When all of this is combined with the breed dog show, cat show, alpaca show and display, the farm animal nursery and the poultry surely this would have to be the best value for money over a weekend!

This is not to forget the pavilion which overflows with the finest artwork, fruit, photography, cookery, needlework, quilting, flowers, vegetables and children's art, plus more.

Goulburn AP&H Society from its beginnings back out at Thom's Paddock in 1846, to its first formal meeting in 1880 to now has been progressive and combined with its aim of getting "Back to Basics" by providing low cost family fun and "something for everyone" will surely survive another 100 years.

Whatever your age, whatever your interest, there will be always something at the Goulburn Plaza Show for you to have a look at. Thanks to all our volunteers, sponsors, supporters and members. Have a great show!

How much can a woodchopper chop?

THERE'S a whole range of competitions to get involved in over the Show weekend.

On Saturday, in between the Grandstand and the Grace-Millsom Function Centre on the grass area at 12.30pm will be a Tug O War, registration starts at 12noon with teams of six.

The show committee are inviting your sporting team, work team or what every team you like to nominate to take part in some good old fashion fun.

Then following this at 1.30pm will be the start of the Young Farmers Challenge. A rundown of challenge activities will take place at 1pm, with the winning team heading off to Sydney Royal Easter Show to represent Goulburn Show, to compete in the State Final.

Get your friends together to form a team of four young people (18 - 35yrs) - following this at 2.30 will be the Speedshear.

On Sunday in front of the Grandstand from 10.30 the Woodchop will take place with some great events taking place.

These include the Tree Felling, Butchers Block and Standing Block.

Keep an eye out for the wood Auction to take place at 12.30pm on the day, for a truck load of chopped wood.

Please be in the area ready for the auction to be conducted by auctioneer Ben Seamen from Elders out the front of the Grandstand.

For something a little different

LOOKING for something a little out of the box? Well, the Goulburn Lieder Youth Theatre might be just the thing.

The group are hosting Circus Workshops at the Show this year, from Saturday at 10am, 12noon and 3pm in the Veolia Arena.

The Lieder Youth Theatre is a very special and unique Goulburn community organisation providing young people with recreational and training opportunities in the performing arts.

The Company has emerged over the years as a major training ground and public platform for local youth with a passion to express themselves through the arts and explore career options in the performing arts.

The Youth Theatre undertakes to present at least one major performance project each year as well as perform at many of the major outdoor entertainment events in Goulburn as stilt walkers, acrobats, jugglers, clowns, street theatre and dancers.

The Lieder Youth Theatre will be performing Circus Workshops at the Goulburn Show and also gallivanting around the grounds, providing roving entertainment in between performances.

So keep an eye out for them and say hello and join in the fun.

You can find out more about the Lieder theatre by going to <http://www.liedertheatre.com>

GOOD FUN: Members of the Goulburn Lieder Youth Theatre will be hosting circus workshops in Veolia Arena on Saturday March 21.

Puppet show oodles of fun

AFTER a successful show at the National Museum of Australia, the Goulburn Show will present a very exciting PuppetOodle performance.

The National Museum of Australia commissioned the group to create a special show for their family fun day for Australia Day 2015, during which they brought back there characters from their web-series from 2012, Baz 'n' Snags, and created a new additional puppet character, Banjo the wild brumby, for the big stage show.

PuppetOodle is the brainchild of Marianne Mettes and was spawned after she made one of the most important and life-changing decisions, overnight in September 2009. It was the decision to dedicate herself full-time to the art of puppetry and sharing her passion and the art form and inspiring others as she had been.

Five years later, her decision all those nights ago has lead to a successful and inspiring self-made career as a full-time artist, performer and puppetry teacher. To read more about Marianne and Jonathon go to <http://www.puppetoodle.com/> There will only be one showing of the Baz 'n' Snags by PuppetOodle at the Goulburn Show so make sure you get there early and don't miss this great show that will be held on Sunday March 22 on the stage in the new Veolia Arena at 12 noon.

Pavilion always produces the goods

GOULBURN Show will have all the traditional pavilion displays and more – with several categories to honour this year's "Anzac Centenary" theme.

Please note there is no limit on the size of exhibits this year.

So keep an eye out for the Giant Vegetable section and Schools Displays in the Produce Section.

The Flower Section, with all the Rose and Dahlia sections, and Garden Gnomes section are open to all ages.

There will be Needlework hanging of the quilts and Junior Arts with the famous Popsicle Stick Challenge (if you require Popsicle sticks they can be picked up from the show office) and the new Recycling Section.

Food and Cookery have a couple of new sections including the "Anzac Bake off" and the new Pre School sections, Arts and Crafts has been separated, so Crafts are on their own and have all the same sections and Arts is now a different section.

Jams and Preserves has been all updated and has some fantastic new sections.

Handweavers and Spinners will have their traditional sections and will be displaying Fibre Dying and Spinning over the weekend.

Merino Country Vignerons' Association are running the Table Wine Competition again this year, after a very successful competition last year and will have wine tasting again. And don't forget the Sheep wool section.

We have the Goulburn Lapidary Club holding demonstrations over the weekend, plus the Goulburn Region

Woodworkers and the Goulburn's Men's Shed will have their train track on display.

The Australian National University doctors will be on hand to take your blood pressure and answer any of your concerns.

Down in the Kids craft corner we will have a giant LEGO play centre where the kids can come and build a LEGO item, thanks to Morton Bros Toyworld and this is where the Star Wars guys will be hanging out.

In the Cookery section "Chefs on Show" will be demonstrating their style and signature dish.

So you can see there is something for everyone to get involved to support your local Goulburn Show, no excuses.

Don't forget that the Pavilion entries close Friday March 13 at the front of the Basketball Stadium.

If you require any further information or would like a schedule please contact the show office on 4821 6813 or www.goulburnshow.com.au.

We are also holding our Giant Raffle again with great prizes up for grabs including a one week's holiday to either Fingal Bay Holiday Centre or Urunga Holiday Centre donated by Goulburn Workers Club, a gift voucher donated by Goodwins 4X4 Parts and an original framed photo of a farm image.

Tickets will be for sale in the pavilion and around the grounds and are $2 each and can be bought up until 4pm on Sunday March 22 when it will be draw then.

Crier Alan to read the news

OH YAY, oh yay, good people of Goulburn, make way for town crier – Alan Moyse.

Alan, was officially sworn in by Chief Minister Katy Gallagher back in 2011 in Canberra and is now an official member of the Ancient and Honourable Guild of Town Criers.

According to Alan, this is the first time Canberra has had a town crier since 1925.

"It's a very ceremonial and honorary position," Alan said.

"Town criers were the old news readers, they'd go into the town square, village square, city square and they'd proclaim the news and then they'd post the news up on the cross in the town centre, or the wall or sometimes the pub or the local church.

"Which is why a lot of newspapers are called 'The Post'."

Alan will be crying at the Goulburn Show over the two days, letting everyone know what is happening around the grounds.

Show on hold as army occupied

WITH this year's theme for the show being the "Centenary of Anzac" it is fitting to celebrate it at the 2015 Goulburn Show this year.

Looking over old records it mentions that the show was not held in the years of the 1916 and 1917 as the Army had the use of the show-ground, and when the army vacated the grounds it was necessary to put the show-ground back into the condition necessary to hold the 1918 show.

A Gala night was held in the main street of Goulburn on the nights of the 1918 show to raise money for the war effort.

Ride a camel

OAKFIELD Ranch Camel Rides, another first for Goulburn, will be travelling all the way from the Central Coast.

Rodney Sansom will be bringing them down to Goulburn, so you will all be able to have a close up look of these great animals and experience the thrill of the ships of the desert with a ride around the Show grounds.

Mr Sansom, the founder of Oakfield Ranch, found his love for animals after growing up around Oakfield Ranch. He then started out organising pony rides and has since moved on to working with horses, carriages, camels and hire for any occasion such as movies, commercials, weddings, school formal anniversaries, birthdays, engagements.

From cats to cavies ... animals on show

ALPACAS will feature again this year on the Saturday in the Peden Pavilion at the Goulburn Show.

Then on the Sunday local breeders will be on hand displaying their alpacas and products and will be available to answer questions.

Also on the Saturday you can see all the cats being judged by three expert judges, with lots of different breeds and classes to be judged, too many to name.

On Sunday the cats will be replaced with a display of rabbits and cavies, on the Sunday in the Peden Pavilion the Angora Goats will be holding their show, exhibiting animals and fleeces. They will also be holding the Schools competition and Young Judges competition.

Under the skillion section will be an array of trade stalls promoting and selling their produces, just outside in the open area will be show bags galore, many food stalls and lots more commercial displays.

Over to the Poultry Pavilion you can check out the Chooks being shown on the Saturday, there will be all varieties of poultry from hard feather, soft feather in standard and bantam and Water fowl, there is also a Junior Poultry Exhibitors section.

The Animal nursery will also have an array of animals to have a look at, I wonder what new animals they have this year? There will also be a display of Dorper and Black and Coloured Sheep.

Out to the Cattle yards near Gate 3 you will find on Saturday the Donkey Display starting at 10am until they finish that afternoon and on the Sunday they will have their Donkey Show.

Unfortunately there is no Cattle at this year's Show as it's too close to Sydney Royal Easter Show and most breeders will be on their way to it.

The Breed Dogs will be showing up to 500 dogs, at the dog area near Gate 5 on Bungonia Road, so go for a short walk down that way to see the amazing varieties of Breed Dogs.

Over to the Rodeo Ring on Saturday and Sunday will be the Team Sorting, which is great to sit and watch, sporting will be held on the Saturday just below the Rodeo grounds starting at 10am and not to be forgotten in the main show ring running both Saturday and Sunday will be all the horse events, from showjumping, rider and breed classes.

And don't forget Sideshow Alley that will be well attended this year as many rides are waiting to set up for the Sydney Show.

All the above animal schedules for the exhibits can be found on our web site www.goulburnshow.com.au under the heading of schedules.

Many of the entries close a couple of weeks before the show, so get in and find your animal entry and get the entries in before they close.

PAVILION AND PETS: The Goulburn Show is renowned for its variety of pavilion exhibits and animal judging and display categories. There will also be plenty of opportunities for children to pat their favourite farmyard animal in the nursery. Check out the attractions at goulburnshow.com.au.

Inside Veolia Arena

MAKE sure you all come in and visit the new Veolia Arena, which is going to have a great display by the Rocky Hill War Museum, Andrew Kelly's Light Horse display, the Kangaroo March group and the Celebrate Goulburn Group.

Booths are being installed for the Goulburn Plaza, Aussie Home Loans, Goulburn Chamber of Commerce, Goulburn Post and Telstra to promote their products and information.

We are planning on putting the Photography and Art display in the Arena, which will give it heaps of room to spread out and make it a nice display to wonder around.

We are moving our live entertainment stage inside as well, with a full program of entertainment happening each day from 9am, with the Junior Showgirl and Master Showman competition on at 10.30 and the Official Show Opening on at 11.30.

Keep an eye out and find the famous CWA Goulburn Evening Branch who will be serving up there Devonshire Tea.

Up close and personal with reptiles

EXPERIENCE the Reptile Show with a difference! Snakes and Reptile Shows have been a regular feature on the Agricultural Show circuit ever since their inception in the late 1800's. Crocodile Encounters brings the travelling reptile show into the 21st Century with a fun, entertaining, "Hands On" experience suitable for the young and old alike. The audience will not only get "up close and personal" with lizards, snakes, turtles and crocodiles, but also learn more about these often misunderstood creatures. Based on the Central Coast of NSW, Crocodile Encounters is owned and run by Mark and Sue Richmond and will be at the Goulburn Show for both Saturday and Sunday, with shows running each hour and a half from 9.30am.

Sheep shearing is back

SHEEP shearing will be back at the Goulburn Show this year on Saturday March 21 on the grass area in between the Grandstand and the Grace Millsom Function Centre.

Rocky Wegner from shearing supplies company Heiniger has come on board and is organising the 2015 Speed Shear competition this year.

Registration is at 2pm and all the action starts at 2:30pm sharp.

There will be grades for Learners, Intermediates and Opens. Up for grabs is $7000 worth of prize money and merchandise. First prize in Opens is a massive $1600 cash!

There will also be a TRANS-TASMAN EVENT- 3 per team - Top Inter and Top two Opens to shear - $600 to the winning team.

We would like to thank our many sponsors that have come on board so far being: Southern Meats, Hollingsworth Cranes, Dival's Earthmoving, Goulburn Workers Club, Professionals Real Estate, BIG 4 Goulburn, TTH Industries, Fullerton Shearing, Meredith & Sons Contract Shearing Taralga, Brewer's Earthmoving, All Round Fencing Services, Allmac Welding, Adam Cousins Constructions and Landmark Goulburn.

A special thanks also goes to Watson Park of whom will be supplying the sheep.

You can contact Rocky on 0407 380 990 for any enquiries regarding entering or sponsorship.
